

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Carroll
Lt. General Joseph F. Carroll
Director, Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20301

Dear Joe,

Reference is made to your letter of 29 April and your discussion with Mr. Helms and Mr. Colby of 1 May. I have attached a draft telegram containing the main points of the discussion which will provide a mechanism for MACV requirements [redacted]

25X1

25X1

I think today's talks have clarified very well this situation, and probably have covered the main point of your letter of 28 April to Mr. McCone.

25X1

Faithfully yours,

[redacted]
Marshall S. Carter
Lieutenant General, USA
Deputy Director

Attachment

P. S. I am distressed that your message was not coordinated with us -- it would probably have avoided a serious misunderstanding. Be assured we're all fighting the same war with equal fervor.

200 55 18 00 00
This was handed to & read by General Carroll. We then discussed background & I developed the Hdqts message as a result thereof

MSC 5/1/64

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

25X1